A schematic diagram of a rectangular domain. The domain is bounded by a dashed line. Inside the domain, there is a point labeled "H b".
